

Alana L. Isaacks PA-C

---

Experience

---

Physician Assistant – Anh Van Nguyen MD & Advanced Derm-Plastic
January 2006 – Present Tomball, Texas

- *Review patient history and perform medical exam as clinically indicated.
- *Develop treatment plan to ensure optimal care which may include prescribing medications, ordering labs/imaging and performing in office dermatological procedures.
- *Review lab and pathology reports to determine appropriate treatment plan.
- *Call patients to discuss treatment plans and provide compassionate continuity of care.
- *Communicate effectively and professionally with supervising physician, staff, patients and their families.

Physician Assistant – Lillian Howard MD, Family Medicine and Geriatrics
January 2001 – January 2005 Houston, Texas

- *Provide patient care across the lifespan to include a detailed history, physical examination, laboratory/diagnostic studies and development of individualized patient treatment plans.
- *Conduct wellness exams for patients from newborn through geriatrics.
- *Diagnose and treat both acute and chronic medical conditions in a fast paced family and geriatric medicine clinic.
- *Call patients to discuss lab/pathology/imaging reports and review treatment plan.
- *Communicate and work effectively with patients, their families and the health care team.

Education

---

University of Texas Medical Branch
Bachelor of Science Degree – Physician Assistant Studies	2000
Texas A&M University
Bachelor of Science Degree – Bioenvironmental Sciences	1995
Blinn Junior College
Associate of Arts Degree	1993

License and Certification

---

Texas Medical Board – Current Physician Assistant License
National Commission and Certification of Physician Assistants - Certification since 2000

Memberships

---

American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA)
Society of Dermatology Physician Assistants (SDPA)

